

Ben Franklin Aphorism Matching Game ANSWERS

Aphorism	Modern Translation
Love your neighbor; yet don't pull down your hedge.	Maintain a practical & consistent sleeping schedule so you can live long & well.
Necessity never made a good bargain.	Watch what you say because you can't take back your words.
Drive thy business; let it not drive thee.	Humans take credit for God's work.
Love your neighbor; yet don't pull down your hedge.	One bad person ruins the whole group.
Necessity never made a good bargain.	One small problem unattended produces a huge future problem.
If you would know the value of money, try to borrow some.	Borrowing money reveals it value.
Three may keep a secret if two of them are dead.	Don't share private information; humans can't keep things to themselves.
God helps them that help themselves.	Divine intervention follows human action.
If your head is wax, don't walk in the sun.	Use common sense and avoid needless pain.
He that lives upon hope will die fasting.	To succeed, base decisions on reality, not on dreams.
Keep thy shop and thy shop will keep thee.	Take care of your business and your business will support you.
Fish and visitors stink in three days.	Don't overstay your welcome.
Love your neighbor; yet don't pull down your hedge.	Be kind, but have healthy boundaries in your relationships.
Necessity never made a good bargain.	Urgent need is not a good state from which to make a deal.
Drive thy business; let it not drive thee.	Work hard but don't let work become your idol.
